Dedication

In 1863 Idaho became a territory.

On this, the centennial anniversary of our admission, we think it only appropriate to dedicate this yearbook to those pioneers responsible. One hundred years is a long time; we, as Idahoans, are proud of our long and colorful history.

It is our wish that you all, as you recall the events recorded herein, will re-reflect for a moment on the past.

Therefore, we dedicate this yearbook to Idaho's Glorious History.

The Filer Wildcats completed a very successful season. The Jerome game, a scoreless tie, was considered to be the most exciting of the year and although Buhl sneaked by us at Homecoming, our boys made a fine showing for themselves. Every game was hard fought and well played and our team established a Conference record of four wins and three losses. Coach Heaps and his team are to commended!

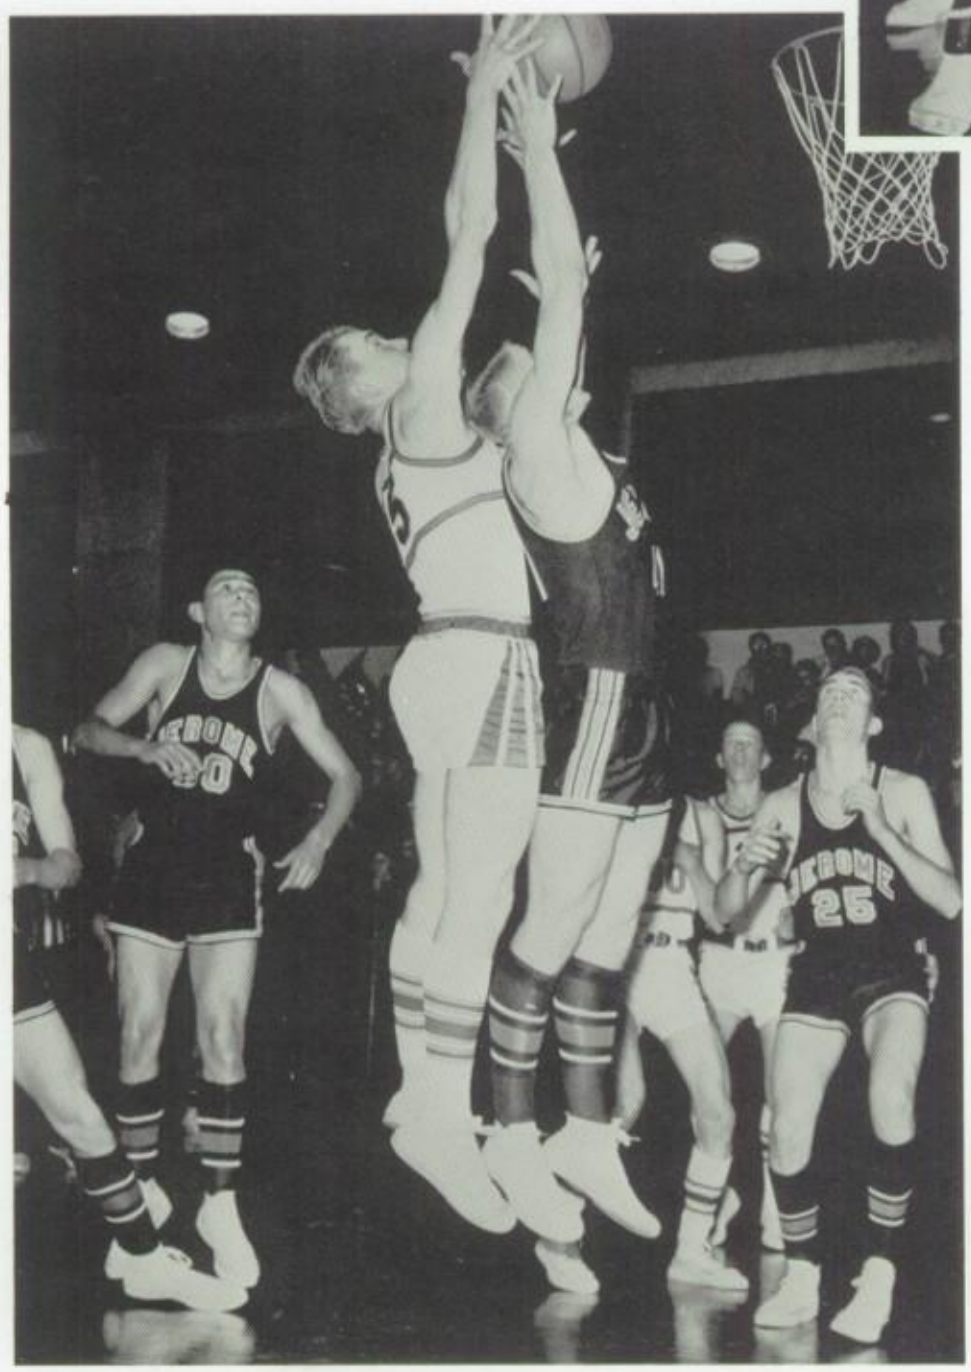
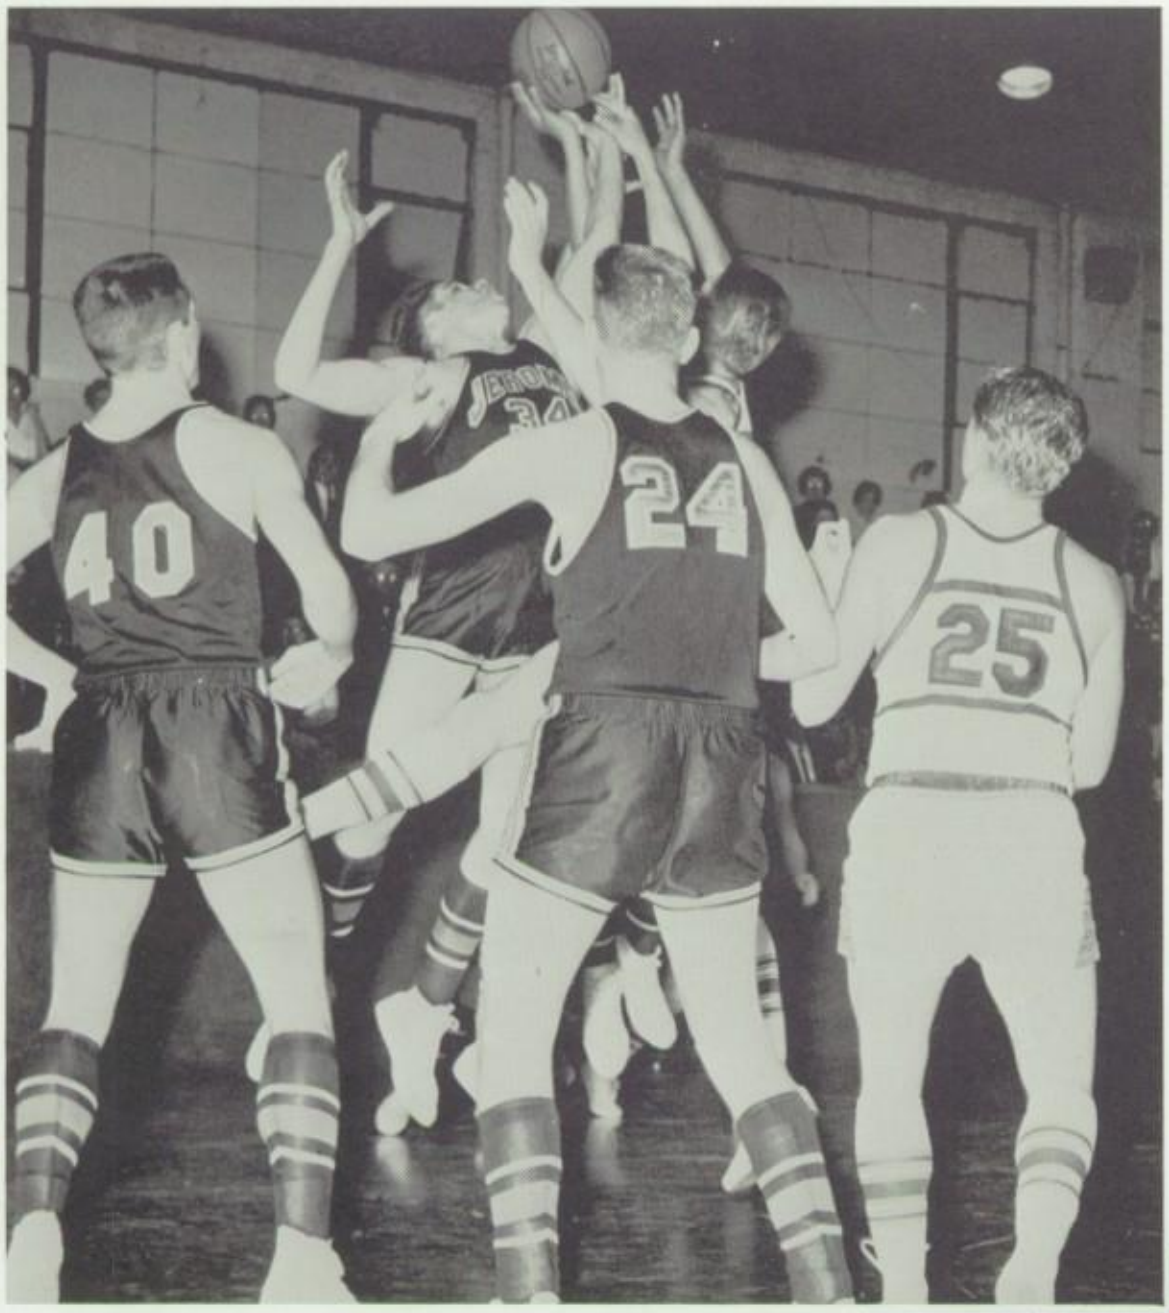
Grab, John, Grab!



Nice check, Charlie.

Come on fellows, close



Although our record was not impressive, the season brought forth many exciting games. Our boys displayed fine sportsmanship and gave even the toughest teams a "run for their money."

Come on Filer - get it quick.

I, Fred Anderson, do will and bequeath all Yearbook related trauma to next year's editor, Steve Annis.

I, Janis Bennett, do will and bequeath to Shirley Greene, the chance to sleep in school as much as I have.

I, Penny Bernardi, do will and bequeath all of my crazy good times in and out of High School to Gayle Cobb, in hopes that she will have as much fun as I did.

I, Monty Bess, do will and bequeath my fool heartiness in taking Physics to anyone foolish enough to follow suit.

I, Jim Blakley, do will and bequeath my hunting ability to Dennis Morgan, as he will need it.

I, David Brydl, do will and bequeath my ability to complain about school to anyone dumb enough to want it.

I, La Ree Crawford, do will and bequeath my ability to be first in the lunch line to any daring underclassmen.

We, Norman Lohr, Wayne Fischer, and Jerry Decker, do will and bequeath our ability to determine the force required to propel projectiles to any student who feels the sudden urge to end his life on earth.

I, Steve Eastman, do will and bequeath my ability to lose at checkers and chess to Steve Annis.

I, George Farmer, do will and bequeath my nickname to anyone who is bowlegged.

I, Bessie Ford, do will and bequeath my ability to take History and Government in my Jr. year to anyone who is crazy enough to try it.

I, Laron Fullmer, do will and bequeath to the student drivers of Filer all of my good driving habits.

I, Phyllis Gardner, do will and bequeath all my research paper notes to my sister Pam.

I, Charles Garey, do will and bequeath my scholastic abilities in Government class to anyone that will make better use of them than I did.

I, Cheryl Gartner, do will and bequeath my height to Judi Smith, in hopes that someday she'll be able to use it.

I, Sue Graves, do will and bequeath campaign stickers, whiskey bottles, rotten tomatoes and paint to Mary, Joyce, and Rita in hopes they will continue the tradition without getting caught.

We, Margie Hall, and Carol Neale, do will and bequeath our paint and paint brushes to the Junior girls in hopes that they will have more fun at Shoshone Falls than we did ----- Painting rocks.

I, Reta Hawley, do will and bequeath my crutches and pillow to Judi Smith for eternal use.

I, Sharon Herrett, do will and bequeath my dilapidated "Old Ford" to Ronnie Theener to fix up. I just hope he can keep her in oil.

I, Warren Lee Holloway, do will and bequeath my ability to have fun in study hall to anyone who has Mrs. McClain as their teacher.

I, Pink Hodgins, do will and bequeath my ability to get drunk, to be obnoxious, and be hated by the teachers to Jerry Tegan, and Leslie Mai, in hopes they will carry on my tradition.

I, Kay Hostetler, do will and bequeath my good times in band to the clarinet section in hopes they have as much fun as I did.

I, Paul Houston, do will and bequeath to be so important in Journalism class that I can't drop it to anyone who is stupid enough to want it.

I, Helen Kauffman, do will and bequeath all the rowdy times I have had in High School to Joyce and Rita in hopes that they have even more.

I, Kathleen Kelley, do will and bequeath my ability to always be late and get away with it to my sister Mary.

I, Karen Kirkman, do will and bequeath the chorus piano bench to anyone stupid enough to think it isn't broadening.

I, Sandra Kirkman, do will and bequeath to Tom Barton, all the problems involved in attending an out-of-state school.

I, Larry Kohntopp, do will and bequeath my height to Judi Smith and my singing ability to Dennis Morgan.

I, Pat Krepcik, do will and bequeath all the fun I had in Sr. Problems being the only boy to Steve Parrish in hopes he learns more than I did.

I, Nancy Lancaster, do will and bequeath my good fortune of never going steady to Ella Faye, although she'll never keep my tradition.

I, John Lanting, do will and bequeath my ability to occasionally get a date to Ron Theener as he needs it.

I, Mary Leonard, do will and bequeath my hula girls to Charles Sierer in hopes he may learn to do the hula dance.

I, Sherri Lierman, do will and bequeath the little red bug and all the flat tires, and busted windows, and all the fun I have had with it to Janet Lierman and Ruth Koinzan.

I, Suzanne Lierman, do will and bequeath all the fun I had at Filer High to Judy Meyer, in hopes she has more.

I, Carole Lookingbill, do will and bequeath the "problem" I once had to Janie (No. 1) and Linda (No. 3) so they can have fun (?).

I, Garwin Lorain, do will and bequeath my insulated underwear to Red so he will stay warm when he is goose hunting.

I, Stanley Mai, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Moran to anyone who has guts enough to try it.

I, Jean Nice, do will and bequeath my last year in High School to my sister, Virginia, in hopes that she will spend more time in school than I did.

I, Jim Nice, do will and bequeath my ability to Ronnie Davis, that he has as much fun with the girls as I did.

I, Gerald Ohlensehlen, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep in class to anyone who doesn't want to graduate.

I, Ted Osterkamp, do will and bequeath my "50" Ford to Danny Carter, in hopes he treats it better than I did.

I, Jo Ann Owen, do will and bequeath the Salmon Tract where the hoot owls chase the jack rabbits to Mr. Glassinger.

I, Judy Parker, do will and bequeath all the fun I've had, and some I haven't had to Gayle Cobb.

I, Jim Patrick, do will and bequeath all of my Junk, including my pickup, to anyone who wants it.

I, Gary Pedrow, leave without a word.

We, Karen Pendergraft, Martha Peters, and Judy Ward, do will and bequeath all our good times at Hollister Grade School to Lynn Chadwick, Wade Williams, and Jeanne Anderson.

I, Sharon Pubanz, do will and bequeath all my good times in Twin to Janey Pubanz, and Mary Werner.

I, Jack Ramsey, do will and bequeath my banjo to anyone who thinks they can keep it tuned, Mr. Chatburn to anyone who needs some advise, and the pleasure of being Student Body President to anyone who has a good supply of aspirin.

I, Duane Rathbun, do will and bequeath all my luck through school to Ron Stokesberry.

I, Arlene Reis, do will and bequeath all my wonderful times in High School, to my brother Bernie Jay Reis.

I, Charles Reis, do will and bequeath my Government book to Leroy Rathbun in hopes he finds use for it.

I, Diane Rife, do will and bequeath my ability to stare out of the windows in Government to anyone else who needs to try to stay awake.

I, Gary Saenger, do will and bequeath office of Senior President to any Junior girl who has time enough to listen to everyone's troubles.

I, Glenn Schroeder, do will and bequeath my good times in High School and staying on the football team to Larry H. and Mike T.

I, Curtis Sliger, do will and bequeath my morning's shave to Delbert Erickson in hopes he can learn to grow a beard.

I, Ralph Taylor, do will and bequeath my ability to hot rod, to anyone that is stupid enough to try to hop up a "Buick."

I, Connie Thaemert, do will and bequeath my sharp 1950 Pontiac to my little brother, Ron and hope he will have as much fun rodding it as I have had.

I, Charles Wright, do will and bequeath the little dopey things I've saved to anyone who has a hypodermic needle.

Class History

Eh? Whatsat, sonny? Class of '63 - well shore I remember that bunch. You got a minute? - let me tell ya about 'em.

Ya know, I recollect 'way back when they first came to the area - pioneers they were. Well suh, ole Jake Ramsey, territorial governor, with his staff of Gary Saenger, lieutenant governor, Judy Ward, state secretary, and Sandra Kirkman, state treasurer, was real happy to welcome wagon trains. He had quite a slug o' secretaries; La Ree Crawford, Phyllis Gardner, Cheryl Gartner, and Sharon Pubanz. Durned if he didn't fall for his private secretary, Carole Lookingbill.

Wagon master Fred Anderson, his assistant Charles Wright, and chief Indian scouts Steve Eastman and David Brydl, led the wagon train into the valley back in '59. I declare, that wagon train had purt' near all kinds of people on it.

There was a band - Penny Bernardi tooted baritone horn; Wayne Fischer really swung on his trombone; Sue Graves played a mean tom-tom; Sharon Herrett, Kay Hostetler and Jo Ann Owen were great with their clarinets; Martha Peters moved it on flute; and Mary Leonard played that new-fangled saxophone.

They had the best athletes in the West. There were those famous rodeo cowboys Pink Hodgin, Ralph Taylor, Charles Reis, and Gerald Ohlensehlen. Indian fighters Glenn Schroeder, Garry Pedrow and Garwin Lorain came in handy in Indian attacks with all their experience. O' course, ever' wagon train back then had to have a cavalry escort; Well, sonny, they had the finest lot O' boys in blue anybody could want. As I recollect it was Lieutenant Jerry Decker's patrol: Sergeant Norman Lohr, Corporal Jim Patrick, Duane Rathbun, Warren Holloway, Jim Nice and Monty Bess.

A group of entertainers that wanted to start an opry house was on the train too. Bessie Ford, Helen Kauffman, Kathleen Kelley, Arlene Reis and Connie Thaemert were the girls in the chorus line - WOW! The Lierman cousins - Sherry and Suzanne - were jist 'bout the best acrobatic team I ever did see. They had been the stars of a travelin' circus before they joined the wagon train. Larry Kohntopp, famous bass of the St. Louis Opera, entertained the other pioneers each night. Concert pianist Karen Kirkman accompanied him at times.

By guppy, sonny, I dang near fergot to tell ya 'bout the most famous traveler of all on that wagon train. It was none other than that famous Eastern defense attorney, George Farmer come West with his courtroom secretary Janis Bennett and private detective assistant John Lanting.

Not more than twenty miles from their destination five wagons broke down and three horses threw shoes. Well suh, sonny, I'm here to tell ya inside half a day those expert wagon mechanics Pat Krepcik, Stan Mai, and Ted Osterkamp had all five wagons fixed and ole Curt Sligar and Chuck Garey had the horses shod better 'n new.

While those fellers were fixin' the wagons a few o' the good folks aboard got to wandering around and pickin' berries for supper that night. Well, I'll be hornswaggled if, right there in the middle of nowhere purt' near, they didn't find four young ladies they hadn't seen for years. Judy Parker, Nancy Lancaster, Diane Rife and Reta Hawley. The good folks asked 'em if they wanted to join the wagon train; they allowed as how they'd like to but said to wait a minute. When they came back they brought some friends with 'em - Karen Pendergraft, Jeannie Nice, Carol Neale and Marjorie Hall. Let me tell ya, sonny, those other folks were real surprised. When they asked the girls what they all were doin' out there they explained that they ran a small trading post. While four of them ran the store the other four made the things they traded with the Indians and hunted for food.

Things were pretty quiet till they had almost reached their destination. Suddenly they heard the loudest, most gawshawful sound you could imagine coming from just over the next ridge. When they peeked over they saw Gary Albin, Jim Blakley and Paul Huston jumpin' and yellin' like idiots. The folks didn't know it at the time, but those three had just discovered gold!

Well, sonny, I reckon I better be moseyin'. I could tell ya lots more about them kind folks, but right now I hear the little woman a' callin' me to supper.

appreciation

We, the members of the 1963 Wildcat staff, are glad to take this opportunity to catch our breath and thank all those who made this book possible-Mr. Kious, our able advisor, Taylor Publishing Company and you.

Without this assistance we could not have done it!
